Topic: PRT 10x Live Coaching

What is Live 10X Coaching? Praised by Harvard researchers and unique to NextJump, presenters are scored, given anonymous real time feedback and receive live coaching by co CEOs Meghan Messenger and Charlie Kim. Trail blazers in adult human development, NextJump is on a mission to fix productivity at work and make people and teams more productive again. The gap in expectations is widening between employees and company leadership. Employees don't trust leaders and leaders don't trust employees. Frankly, people don't trust each other. NextJump's mission is to put trust and community back into the workplace. Live 10X Coaching provides a window into the applications and systems NextJump uses to put that mission into practice.
